.0.6.6 windows 7, for the record. (was lost during a long bout of meningitis and was replaced with a piece of felt paper with a small draw hole, on which I had drawn a cat.) Sauce Golden Delicious This is the sauce that makes everything a little better: it is like strawberry jam crossed with glace cherries, and is wonderful over scones, pancakes, boiled custard, baked apples, and of course, muffins and bread. There is a very sweet version of this sauce which is very nice too. 1/2 cup of golden delicious Apples, peeled and quartered 1/2 cup of granulated sugar 1 1/2 cups of water 1 Tablespoon of butter A little lemon juice A dash of vanilla essence Boil for about 10 minutes, or until the apples are soft. Add the sugar, stir well, and allow to cool. Combine in a food processor and process until smooth. Slice the muffins in half and spread on the fruit filling. Top each muffin with about 2 tablespoons of sauce and bake at 350 F for 10 minutes, or until golden brown. Allow to cool for at least 5 minutes before serving. These muffins are great served with cups of steaming tea and a bowl of curried quiche for breakfast. Retired priest sentenced to 45 years for child sex offences A former UK priest convicted of child sex offences has been sentenced to 45 years in prison. The former St Aidan's Church in Warminster was packed with victims' relatives as the judge condemned Thomas Gordon as a "serial predator" during a sentencing hearing at Salisbury Crown Court. The Rochdale-based priest, aged 62, had already admitted 28 child sex offences, including using his position to abuse boys and girls at various schools in the Wiltshire town between 1975 and 1996. Gordon denied 18 of the offences in court, but was convicted of the remaining 10 after a trial. Gordon, who previously denied being "perverted by" children, has already been jailed for eight years after he was convicted of similar offences against children. Prosecutor Simon Dove said the crimes occurred during Gordon's time as a priest at St Aidan's between 1975 and 1996. He said: "In many respects, the defendant was acting as a school governor at various
